EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

What judges are looking for – work performance and student learning

Give concrete examples of outstanding work performance. How do you feel the candidate has contributed to the betterment of the district and co-workers? Describe tangible evidence of ways the candidate has contributed to student success. What contributions has the individual made that people have admired? In what ways has the individual improved working relationships with other employees in the district?

Please attach a letter or memo answering the questions above for section #1- #3. Sign the letter and identify your relationship to the nominee.

#1 – Job Performance

This should be completed by any ONE of the following: candidate's immediate supervisor, the district supervisor, any other district or university administrator, including the university president.

#2 – Job Related Factors

This should be completed by a co-worker (either certificated or classified)

#3 – Job Related Factors

This should be completed by another co-worker (either certificated or classified).

Please attach a brief letter verifying that this individual has a positive relationship with the chapter and the PSE organization. If they have served in any capacity as a chapter leader or contributed in some way to the chapter, please list examples.

#4 – Leadership Activities

This section must be completed and signed by one (1) of the following: (a) officer or member of the local PSE chapter in which the candidate is active, (b) a member of the Chapter's Board of Trustees or (c) a member of the PSE State Board of Directors.
